Your investment in the Fund will be used to support the charitable purpose of the Fund by allowing it to:

- make loans to the Diocese, Diocesan agencies, schools and Ministry units for building and other purposes that support the mission of the Diocese,
- make grants to the Diocese out of any surpluses from its operations for use by Bishop-in-Council to further the purpose of the Diocese,
- make donations out of any surpluses from its operations to Parishes or other Diocesan agencies.

The Fund is required by law to notify investors that:

- investments in the Fund are not subject to the usual protections for investors under the Corporations Act or to regulation by the Australian Securities & Investments Commission (ASIC),
- the investment is only intended to attract investors whose primary purpose for making their investment is to support the charitable purpose of the Fund,
- investors may be unable to get some or all of their money back when the investor expects, or at all,
- investments in the Fund are not comparable to investments with banks, finance companies or fund managers.

The Fund does not hold an Australian Financial Services Licence. The Fund has lodged an Identification Statement with ASIC as required by ASIC Corporations (Charitable Investment Fundraising) Instrument 2016/813. The statement is available on our website (aidf.com.au).

The Fund is not prudentially supervised by the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority. Therefore, an investor in the Fund will not receive the benefit of the financial claims scheme or the depositor protection provisions in the Banking Act 1959.

Investments with AIDF are backed by AIDF's substantial reserves and the AIDF is guaranteed by the Diocese of Canberra and Goulburn.

For the purposes of paragraph (b) above the following criteria will be applied in determining if a person is to be treated as a voluntary staff member for relying on that person being an associate:

- a person who is a member of the governing body of the Diocese, a Diocesan agency, school or Ministry unit,
- a person who is a member of any committee established by the Diocese to further the work of the Diocese,
