Terms & Conditions

A minimum of 31 days' notice is required for all withdrawals from AIDF Community Saver Notice Accounts. In order to access your funds, please complete and submit a 'Notice of Withdrawal' form (or equivalent request in writing/email) and wait the minimum 31 day notice period. All withdrawals to be in the form of EFT to another account in the name of the AIDF account holder or a cheque can be drawn F/- the account holder.

In order to close a Community Saver Notice Account, you must submit a 'Closure of Account' form (or equivalent request in writing/email) and wait the 31 day notice period. You cannot withdraw funds early or break a notice period, however immediate access to funds under circumstances of hardship will be considered by the AIDF in accordance with our Early Access to Funds policy which can be found on our website. If a Notice of Withdrawal is received on a weekend or public holiday, the 31 days' notice period will commence from the next business day, likewise if the withdrawal date falls on a weekend or public holiday, it will be processed on the next business day. The notice period begins from the date it is received at our office.
